

KSI - South American Safari

Session Overview

In this session children will be taken on a journey across South America, discovering the amazing monkeys that live there. Learn all about the Amazon Rainforest and the species that inhabit it, from the cunning capuchin monkey to the miniscule marmoset! This session is designed to provoke children into comparing the geographical differences between the UK and South America, considering why South America makes such a good home for monkeys!

National Curriculum Links:

Science

Animals, Including Humans

Living Things and Their Habitats

Geography

Locational Knowledge

Place Knowledge

Learning Outcomes:

- Each child will understand that the natural geography of the UK and South America is very different
- Each child will have an understanding of the variety of primate species native to South America